

PUBLICITY RELEASE

Throughout the school year, Fulton Academy of Science and Technology will conduct activities that may be publicized through the school's official social media sites, website, the Fulton County School district's website, and local or national news media. Such activities may include interview sessions with news reporters; candid photographs for the yearbook, newspapers or various school system publications, including newsletters, calendars, and brochures; videotaping for local and national television newscasts, cable programming, and school system promotional videos; and photographs for the social media pages and Internet pages of FAST or the Fulton County School district.

If you do not wish for your child to participate in these publicity activities, please check below and return to your child's teacher.

___ My child may not participate in any publicity activities for events sponsored by Fulton Academy of Science and Technology or the Fulton County School district.
